Congratulations to Goodwill of Southern Nevada for the amazing reopening of their Deja Blue Boutique. The celebrations began with a VIP Blue Carpet event, followed by an epic grand opening for the public with over 150 excited shoppers lined up to shop the designer goods.

Danielle Casey Discusses New Role at LVGEA

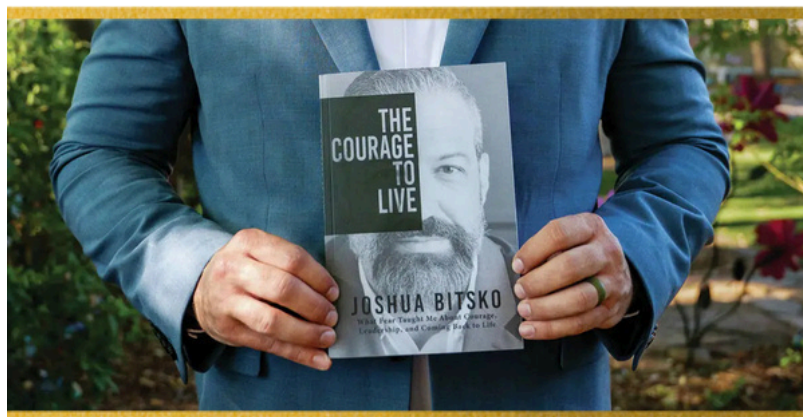

It was a wonderful morning spent with Danielle Casey, new president and CEO of the Las Vegas Global and Economic Alliance. She recently sat down with Vegas PBS's Amber Dixon to talk about her new role and her perspective on the Las Vegas community and economy.

October 1: Retired LVMPD Captain Joshua Bitsko Tells His Story

LAS VEGAS
REVIEW-JOURNAL

“A normal day ... until it wasn’t,” On October 1, 2017, the Las Vegas community was changed in an unimaginable way. Retired LVMPD Caption Joshua Bitsko was one of the first people who entered the room on the day of the tragedy. In his new book, “The Courage to Live,” Bitsko recounts the evening at Mandalay Bay and the aftermath that came. Check out his incredible book today.

Coral Academy of Las Vegas Earns 5-Star Rating Throughout the Valley

Coral Academy of Las Vegas has had an eventful month filled with great honors throughout their campuses. The following locations earned a 5-Star rating from the Nevada School Performance Framework. Eastgate Elementary School, Centennial Elementary School, Centennial Middle School, Sandy Ridge High School, Sandy Ridge Middle School, Tamarus Elementary School, Windmill Middle School, and Cadence Middle School.

Special guests included Henderson Mayor Michelle Romero, Henderson Councilwoman Monica Larson, Nevada State Senator Carrie Buck and Governor Joe Lombardo.

Coral Academy continues to provide exceptional education throughout Southern Nevada, and these recognitions are a wonderful acknowledgement of their work.

Problem Gambling Center Welcomes Community to New Location

It was our pleasure joining the team at the Dr. Robert Hunter International Problem Gambling Center, Nevada's leading nonprofit dedicated to the treatment of gambling addiction, as they held an open house for their newly-relocated facility on West Charleston Blvd. The open house offered a unique opportunity to see firsthand how the organization supports clients on their journey to recovery.

Las Vegas Chamber Welcomes LVGEA CEO

LVGEA's new president and CEO Danielle Casey was officially welcomed into the community by the Vegas Chamber. We are so excited to work with Danielle and her team as she takes on the task of placing Southern Nevada on the global economic map.

Happy Birthday Rainbow Club Casino!

It was a day full of celebrations at the Rainbow Club Casino. There was great food and a full house all day, making it one of the best days for the Henderson staple. Mayor Michelle Romero and Henderson city council candidate for Ward 3, Annette Dawson Owens made special appearances.

TROSPER TRAILS

We blinked and September was over. It's officially Halloween season. We would love to see your Halloween photos from your office celebrations so be sure to send them over so we can feature them in our newsletter next month. Happy Halloween and stay safe.
