

Trosper
Public Relations

Dear friends,

I hope you had a great Thanksgiving, whether feasting or shopping or stretched out on the beach in the Caribbean. We all have a lot to be grateful for; myself, I am rich with wonderful people in my life.

We were crazy busy right up to the last week of November and are right back at it this week. The holidays are here and 2026 is peeking around the corner. Remember to take the time you need, and not get caught up in the busyness of the season.

See you around,

Liz

Goodwill of Southern Nevada Spreads Holiday Joy

Goodwill kicked off the holiday season with their 5th Annual Holiday Shopping Spree. Children from various organizations such as FEAT (Families for Effective Autism Treatment) and Foster Kinship were given $100 gift cards and VIP access to the American Pacific store in Henderson to shop for the holidays. The children were accompanied by volunteers from Henderson Fire and Police Departments. Thank you to everyone who joined this momentous shopping spree.

Pancakes for Patriots

Honor Flight of Southern Nevada recently hosted their annual Pancakes for Patriots. The event had an impressive turnout, including Henderson Mayor Michelle Romero, Councilmen Dan Stewart and Jim Seebock, Councilwoman Dr. Monica Larson, and many more veterans throughout our community.

State of the City 2025

Trosper PR was pleased to sponsor a table at this year's State of the City at the M Resort. Mayor Romero and Council shared updates on how our beloved city is growing and thriving. Henderson is truly a place to call home and locate your business.

Coral Academy Eastgate Campus Receives New Playground

Coral Academy of Science's Eastgate Campus was the recent recipient of a free playground in collaboration with Kaboom and the CarMax Foundation. This partnership is part of an effort to end playspace inequality throughout the country. Thank you to all of the volunteers who spent the day creating the incredible space.

VEGASINC

Goodwill of Southern Nevada Receives Angel Award

Our team was so proud to celebrate our incredible client, Goodwill of Southern Nevada, for being named Vegas INC Angel Awards Nonprofit of the Year (Large). This recognition comes at a milestone moment, perfectly capping off the organization's 50th anniversary and honoring its longstanding commitment to empowering individuals and strengthening our community. We are grateful for the opportunity to support Goodwill's mission and applaud their continued impact across Southern Nevada.

Las Vegas Global Economic Alliance Board Mixer

The Las Vegas Global Economic Alliance hosted an informative event at the Mob Museum on future relocation opportunities in Southern Nevada. Site selectors from across the country highlighted the multitude of assets that they found appealing for industries they may be relocating for and what that would mean for Southern Nevada.

Helix Electric Provides Helping Hands This Thanksgiving

Helix Electric joined forces with Northern Nevada HOPES, Karma Box, the Reno Brewery District, the Washoe County Sheriff's Department, and 4th Street Brewery & Coffee Bar to bring warmth and joy to Reno's unsheltered population for their 2nd annual "Helping Hands – Sweets & Treats" event. Attendees from the Cares Campus and Reno's unsheltered community were provided with coffee, pie, music, and a variety of resources and winter necessities.

Lieutenant Governor Stavros Anthony Visits UNEV Pipeline Terminal

The HF Sinclair team hosted Lieutenant Governor Stavros Anthony to a site tour at the North Las Vegas terminal. The UNEV Pipeline is the secondary source of gasoline into Southern Nevada.

St. Paul's Church Provides Thanksgiving Dinners to the Local Henderson Community

Bishop Chris Moran has been helping feed and clothe many of the local neighborhoods surrounding his church in Ward 3 for many years and has traditionally provided Thanksgiving dinners as well. This year their turkey donor dropped out, so Councilman Jim Seebeck located a new donor, thank you Snap Towing, and the momentum grew with others stepping up with additional funds. Both Mayor Michelle Romero and Councilman Jim Seebeck alongside the Henderson Police Department and other volunteers handed out 450 Thanksgiving meals.

